

Purchase your limited edition Stephen Lewis print and help ease the pain of AIDS in Africa

To coincide with the opening of Stephen Lewis Secondary School, the Peel District School Board is excited to unveil a limited edition watercolour print celebrating Canadian humanitarian Stephen Lewis. Donated by artist Jeff Sprang, all proceeds from sales of the print will go to the Stephen Lewis Foundation to help ease the pain of HIV/AIDS in Africa.

Peel board's newest secondary school named for Stephen Lewis

Stephen Lewis Secondary School in Mississauga, Ontario is the first school in the world to be named for the Canadian humanitarian. Opening in September 2006, the school will have a strong social justice focus. Stephen Lewis' commitment and compassion make him an excellent role model for the change Peel students can make in the world.

About the artist

Jeff Sprang has more than 25 years of experience as a communications professional and artist. With the former Toronto Board of Education, he dealt directly with the media as the board's spokesperson. Currently he is the director of communications for the Ontario Public School Boards' Association.

Some of Sprang's other portraits include Nelson Mandela, Muhammad Ali and Northrop Frye. Sprang's paintings have been reviewed in such art publications as Art Impressions and Azure magazine. He has also been featured in the Toronto Star, CityTV, CBC and CBC Sunday Arts Entertainment.
