

VybeDance Company

Versatile Young Bodies of Energy (VYbE) emerged onto the Canadian dance scene in 1996. Under the artistic direction of Teego, they have made an exciting impact on audiences with their highly energized performances. Their street style, savvy and unique choreography has made them the up and comers to definitely watch out for. The VYbE dancers can be seen appearing in numerous events, concerts, TV programs and commercials in both Canada and the United States. VYbE has worked with a number of well-known artists and groups like Shaggy, Aaron Carter, The Toronto Raptors Dance Pack, and a number of Asian Pop personalities.

Their Spotlight annual production has raised money each year for local and international charities such as Hamilton Health Sciences, Art Starts, Free The Children, and Evergreen.
